

The Last Fruit of the Spirit: Self-control

Galatians 5:22-23

gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. ²⁴ And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. ²⁵ If we live by the Spirit, let us also keep in step with the Spirit. ²⁶ Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Love	Joy	Peace
Patience Long-suffering	Kindness	Goodness
Faithfulness	Gentleness Meekness	Self-Control

Let's explain the challenge of a sermon like this

When a teacher encounters a particular word like self-control that is worthy of singular focus during an exegesis of a Bible text the challenge is to do more than present all the verses related to the subject or cherry pick just the ones he wants to use

At which point, the audience remembers there was a lesson on self-control, but remembers little more than that

A Christian wrestler NOT eating for three days so he can make weight and wrestle in the 128lb category instead of 135lb is not an example of biblical self control that's will power.

Willpower is

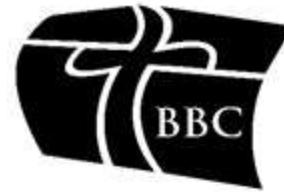

Control exerted to do something or restrain impulses

Some have more or less willpower than others—those with more may find little need for the fruit of the Spirit ‘self-control’ while those with less may have the propensity to give up on attaining this virtue

Titus 1:7-8

- For an overseer, as God's steward, must be above reproach. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered or a drunkard or violent or greedy for gain, but hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined.

For self-control to be a fruit of the Spirit it must come from the Holy Spirit in a supernatural way that cannot be explained or proven scientifically

It cannot be Stoic willpower or self-discipline to exercise longer or sleep or eat less or spend less etc.

It must be Spirit empowered from God's grace

Acts 24:22ff

But Felix, having a rather accurate knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case.” Then he gave orders to the centurion that he should be kept in custody but have some liberty, and that none of his friends should be prevented from attending to his needs. After some days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, and he sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus.

Turn to 2 Peter 1

Simeon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: ² May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. ³ His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to his own glory and excellence, ⁴ by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. ⁵ For this very reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, and virtue with knowledge, ⁶ and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, ⁷ and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. ⁸ For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ For whoever lacks these qualities is so nearsighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. ¹⁰ Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to confirm your calling and election, for if you practice these qualities you will never fall. ¹¹ For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. ¹² Therefore I intend always to remind you of these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have.
