

Set Apart From Conflict Through Forgiveness

As Christians, we are not exempt from conflict or difficult relationships. We are however, called to respond differently to them. What is our response when we feel we have been wronged by a fellow believer? Does avoiding disagreements make us peacemakers, or does it give us a false sense of peace that allows bitterness or judgment to seep into our heart? Join me in studying Matthew 5 to see what Jesus expects of us in the face of these situations and what our response to them should be.

Raw Truth...

- My thoughts - hypocrite, unqualified, phony!
- The Holy Spirit said.. That's exactly WHY!
- I AM failing.
- I often justified my anger as righteous anger.
- When I wasn't angry I was being a peace keeper.

2 TIMOTHY 2:24-26

And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. God may perhaps grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.

2 TIMOTHY 2:24-26

IF the Lord's servant IS NOT quarrelsome BUT INSTEAD, is kind to everyone, able to teach, patiently enduring evil, correcting his opponents with gentleness. THEN God MAY perhaps USE THAT to grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth, and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.

THAT IS THE GOAL!!
