Dear Friends,

Thank you for your encouraging gift. Your partnership in our ministry truly is so important. Together we are sharing the Gospel and serving the Church around the world.

In spite of the harsh winter weather, which we have been experiencing, we have enjoyed wonderful blessings as we entered our new year. Praise the Lord for a great group of students and for our dedicated team seeking to prepare them to serve the Lord. Our graduation event at Mount Olive Bible College was an encouraging time as we celebrated the achievement of another graduating class who move into various ministries within the prison system. Pray for these precious graduates.

Another feature as we started our new semester was our Pinter Lecture Series, focusing on a particular topic related to our mission of preparing servants. Dr. Jon Rinker, our Chair of Bible / Theology, was this year's lecturer. He brought stirring sessions on the theme "The Glory of Christ and the Endurance of Christians" from the book of Hebrews. I invite you to enjoy these lectures (abc.edu/live).

Again, thank you for your help as you pray and give. Keep praying the Lord of Harvest to send more servants...because Life is for Service.

*So grateful for your faithful partnership.
Because I have had a very full start to this new school semester.
Your prayer & support are such an encouragement to us. We are honored to serve with you —*
