This is a harmony of the synoptic gospels.

βαπτίζω

Transliteration

baptizō (Key)

Pronunciation

bap-tid'-zo

Part of Speech

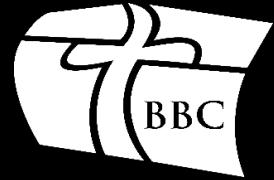

verb

Root Word (Etymology)

From a derivative of βάπτω (G911)

John 13:26

- Jesus answered, “It is he to whom I will give this morsel of bread when I have dipped it.”
- So when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.

This word should not be confused with baptô (911). The clearest example that shows the meaning of baptizo is a text from the Greek poet and physician Nicander, who lived about 200 B.C.

BLUE LETTER BIBLE

It is a recipe for making pickles and is helpful because it uses both words. Nicander says that in order to make a pickle, the vegetable should first be 'dipped' (baptô) into boiling water and then 'baptised' (baptizô) in the vinegar solution. Both verbs concern the immersing of vegetables in a solution. But the first is temporary. The second, the act of baptizing the vegetable, produces a permanent change.

Matthew 3

Mark 1

Luke 3

14 John would have prevented him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?”

15 But Jesus answered him, “Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he consented.

John knows who Jesus is and who he, himself, is

Why does John push back?

What does it say
about the importance of baptism if Jesus
insisted on getting baptized?

Let me remind you: John was not pleading with people to get baptized.

John's message was “bear fruits
in keeping with repentance.”

Luke 3:7

•He said therefore to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?”

What is meant by “to fulfill all righteousness”

‘To fulfill all righteousness’
succinctly describes the necessity that Jesus do everything His Father required of Him even “to the point of death, even death on a cross.” (Philippians 2:8)

Romans 5:19

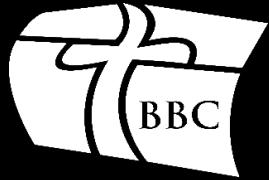

•For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Concerning Matthew 3:15, DA Carson writes that Jesus is modeling God's will for his people in his baptism by John.

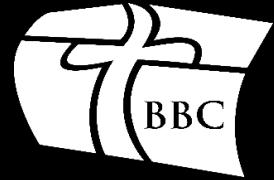

Think About That

John 4:34

- Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work.”

John 2:17

- His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.”

Look @ Christ's focus on righteousness

Righteous

1. acting in accord with divine or moral law: free from guilt or sin
2. morally right or justifiable

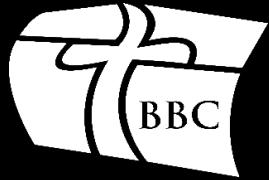

(Springfield, MA: Merriam-Webster, 1996)

Matthew 5:6

•“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

Matthew 5:20

•For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 6:1

•“Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.”

Matthew 6:33

- But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Righteousness

86x in 82 verses

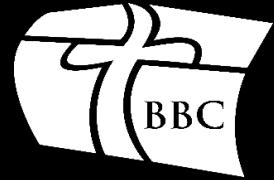

1 John 3:7

- Little children, let no one deceive you.

Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous.

1 John 3:10

•By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.

Contemporary Jewish Bible

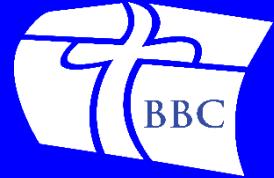

15 However, Yeshua answered him, “Let it be this way now, because we should do everything righteousness requires.” Then Yochanan let him.

NET

15 So Jesus replied to him, “Let it happen now, for it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John yielded to him.

If Jesus said prior to his baptism— “it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness...”

Can I say, “It is a righteous thing to get baptized”?

¹⁰ And when he

to Baptists the specific language here
is a big deal

The literal understanding of the Greek word βαπτίζω (bap-tid'-zo) combined with the specific language in the text “came up out of the water” requires that mode of baptism be by immersion whenever a body of water is available.

John made a connection between the speaking from heaven saying,

'this is my beloved son' and the Spirit
descending upon Jesus.
